Subject - Grant of Scholarships to J. Venkanna Ch and J. Satyanarayana - students in the Sri Jagad Gururanga Occupational Institute - Bangalore
By the Salem Town Municipal Council

B. the fact the Government Council sanctioning the payment of the scholarships to the two students was received in this Office the Superintendent of the Occupational Institute had received this Office a letter stating that I S Langley to whom the scholarship had been recommended had been awarded a Government Scholarship and that the Scholarship amount of $100.00 must be granted to one of the originally* noted two candidates, who were

*1 G. L. Christian
2 H. L. Kingston

the Municipal President S. L. ...

a reply to the Superintendent Occupational Institute stating that as the two candidates referred to by him were not the residents of S. L. Town the could not be awarded the ...

*Scholarship recommended by him in place of I S Langley

In the meanwhile the Municipal Council 3271 considered the applications of the 21 small * noted to candidates at the meeting held on 27-6-46 and
 * K Venkannachari made a resolution to the effect 21 September 1946 that the two candidates indicated to be eligible to be granted the scholarships at Rs 7/8/- each per annum in place of Rs 10/0/-

The Superintendent of the Occupational Institute who was consulted as to the progress and conduct of these two students in his letter No 134 dated 22nd Oct '46 stated that both these students were keen and apt to the 11 year class and that their progress and conduct are quite satisfactory. He recommended that the scholarships proposed for the two students might be granted.

I may state in this connection that while considering the order of Government dated 24-7-46 instructions had been issued to the Municipal Committee not to draw and disburse the scholarship amount to K S Venkannachari 45-46 as he had been awarded a Government Scholarship.

In the circumstances I recommend that the scholarship amount of Rs Rs 15/- amount for 12 months for the year 45-46 might be sanctioned to the original noted two
 * K Venkannachari candidates at Rs 7-8-0 each per annum. The 21 September 1946 cost on this account will be met from the closing balance of the Salem Town Municipal Council.
